

Quick Response Services, LLC

Warning - Scan all new thumb drives before using!

The FBI has investigated and verified that several new thumb drives were found infected with a Qakbot information stealing worm before they entered the US. QRS recommends running a malware scan immediately before using. We also recommend that your PC or laptop not be online or on any local network until such scan is completed and verified safe. This kind of infection passes easily, so take care before using.

If you have questions regarding this memo, feel free to contact us at Security@QRSLLC.com